

Parenting

"With her fresh vocals, and lyrics that encourage monkey-hear, monkey-do interactivity, Meredith LeVande really gets kids moving."

The Bergen Record

"Children's musician Meredith LeVande puts a great deal of thought into her creations, contemplating more than just melody, lyrics, and rhythm."

Chicago Parent

"What Are the Odds? isn't purely entertaining, it's brainy and brilliant . . . your little ones won't even realize how much they're innately absorbing."

Boston Children's Music

"(Meredith's) vocals are so playful and endearing and you can really tell that she loves singing songs for kids. Meredith says that she thinks 'every song should originate from a wonderful connection with a child' and that really shines through in her work."

Metro Augusta Parent

". . . the possibilities are as boundless as the energy in a room full of four-year-olds."

Midwest Book Review

"What Are the Odds? is buoyant, invigorating, and highly recommended."

The Toy Book

"What Are the Odds? delivers upbeat songs about a variety of topics, including the title-track's account of odd numbers."

Nugget Island

"Meredith brings on music and movement in (What Are the Odds?) that is pure preschool gold."

The Review Broads

"(What Are the Odds?) is a rocking, stomping CD that presents a fun-filled version of rock, bop, jazz, and funk rhythms with words that tap tap like a tap dancer! . . . When I heard What Are the Odds, listening was the ONLY option! It was like watching UP from Disney — a kid's movie that kids relate to and love, with a whammy extra — adults found it heartfelt and moving also. Meredith has this quality imbued into her tunes! . . . 4.5 (out of 5 stars) for a thoughtful, highly creative and JUST PLAIN GOOD FUN CD . . ."

Dropped Stitches

"These are great songs that one can find no fault with; I find it refreshing when an artist strives to keep our kids innocent and, well, kids."

Goodie Goodie Gumdrops

"What Are the Odds? is like preschool in a pint-sized package. Meredith LeVande merges the folk stylings of Lisa Loeb with the imagination and interaction of Laurie Berkner for a delightfully simple yet honest children's record. Monkey Monkey Music will have your little monkey movin' and groovin'. And expanding that cranium too."

Textbook Mommy

"What do you get when you put together catchy, clever, upbeat songs with the beautiful voice of children's performer Meredith LeVande? You get a great CD filled with songs kids love titled What Are the Odds? What Are the Odds? is buoyant, invigorating, and highly recommended."

Poughkeepsie Journal

"(Meredith's) natural skills of children's communication and her catchy tunes made it a great morning for the children and their parents."

Dad of Divas

"(What Are the Odds?) rocks! There is so much musical variety on this CD that it made my head spin (in a good way)."

Mommy Perks

"I love the sound of children laughing uncontrollably. A child's laughter is medicine for the soul and the (What Are the Odds?) CD certainly delivers."

Have Sippy Will Travel

"So, 'What Are the Odds?' that you will like the same CD that your toddler will? Pretty good, I'd say, if that CD happens to be 'Monkey Monkey Music' from Meredith LeVande. . . . Meredith LeVande did a fantastic job at creating music that kids will love, and parents (and teachers!)."

Mommy's Free Time

"(What Are the Odds?) is our new car CD! This is a fun CD that would be perfect for daycares, homeschooling or just for fun at home with your kids! It's family friendly and I would recommend it to any of my friends with young kids!"

Go Graham Go!

"What a wonderful change! The songs on this CD are fun and educational, which any mother would love! My kids really like the music and really enjoy dancing and singing along. Not only is it perfect for playtime, but it is great background music as well. This is a new favorite in our house!"

Mr. Jeff 2000

"LeVande is just grand for youngsters."
